

Endurance appoints Stackhouse Director of Asset Management

Endurance Real Estate Group, LLC a real estate investment and development firm, based in Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania hired Kevin Stackhouse as Director of Asset Management. In his capacity as asset manager for Endurance, Mr. Stackhouse will be responsible for all aspects of asset management, including facility and property management, operations, leasing and financial reporting for Endurance's 1.5 million SF portfolio of industrial and office properties in the Mid-Atlantic States.

“This position has been created to ensure that Endurance's portfolio has an extremely high-level management team with the resources to manage the Company's growing portfolio of investment properties,” said Benjamin Cohen, president of Endurance Real Estate Group. “We are tremendously pleased that our company continues to attract the highest caliber of real estate professionals, and we welcome Kevin Stackhouse as a vitally important member of our team,” said Bill White CEO of Endurance.

Prior to joining Endurance, Mr. Stackhouse worked for Glenborough Realty Trust, a national REIT managing the day-to-day leasing, construction, and management operations of a 1.9 million square-foot, Class-A office and industrial portfolio in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. During this time frame he successfully maintained an 89% tenant retention rate while successfully leasing, renewing and constructing over 750,000 square feet of tenant space. He also successfully worked on the disposition of 560,000 square feet of non-core assets at that time. Prior to Glenborough, Mr. Stackhouse was Vice President of Construction and Management for The Schultz Organization, a full service real estate firm based in Central New Jersey managing their day-to-day operations and successfully expanding both the company's Management and Construction divisions during his tenure. Mr. Stackhouse began his career at Gale and Wentworth for six years in their Property and Facilities Service department.

Mr. Stackhouse received his BA in Management, with an emphasis in Accounting and Finance from Bloomsburg University in Pennsylvania. He has also completed the RPA and SMA designation from the Building Owners and Management Institute and is a licensed Real Estate Person in the State of New Jersey.
